INSURANCE DEPARTMENT,
BOSTON, Jan. 1, 1881.

To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives.

PART I. of the Twenty-sixth Annual Report of this Department, submitted herewith, exhibits the financial condition and business of all Companies authorized to write fire and marine risks in Massachusetts Dec. 31, 1880. Their statements, both in summarized and detailed form, for the year ending at that date, are supplemented with such other information relating to their business as may possess interest and value.

Very respectfully, etc.,

JULIUS L. CLARKE,
Insurance Commissioner.

TWENTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE INSURANCE COMMISSIONER.

PART I. FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE.

COMPANIES AUTHORIZED IN MASSACHUSETTS.

THE business of Fire and Marine Insurance transacted by Companies authorized in this Commonwealth, during the year 1880, is exhibited in the following pages with as much of detail as is necessary to a complete and intelligent understanding of its growing importance and financial relations. Of the magnitude of these interests, the accompanying tabulated and detailed statements present significant evidence.

Two hundred and fourteen Companies in all were in the field during the year, seventy-seven of them Massachusetts organizations, and the remainder from other States and countries. Of the two hundred and seven authorized to write fire and marine risks in the State at the close of the last Report, only one hundred and eighty-nine now remain, so that, with the nine admitted during the interim, the present number is one hundred and ninety-eight; viz., seventy-one Home Companies, and one hundred and twenty-seven organized elsewhere.

Of the Home Companies now transacting business, fifty-two are Mutuals (five of them with guarantee capital), and nineteen are Stock Companies, counting the Traders' and Mechanics' only as a Mutual, the business of its stock department having been discontinued.

Of the remaining Companies, one hundred are from other States; and twenty-seven from other countries, the latter represented here through their American branches.

The changes which have taken place since the issue of the last Report are as follows: —

COMPANIES ADMITTED.

NAME OF COMPANY.	Location.	Date.
Union	San Francisco, Cal. .	Oct. 26, 1880.
Scottish Union and National .	Edinburgh, Scot. .	Dec. 8, 1880.
Lion Fire	London, Eng. . .	Dec. 8, 1880.
British and Foreign Marine .	Liverpool, Eng. .	Dec. 28, 1880.

The Fire Insurance Company of the County of Philadelphia .	Philadelphia, Penn..	Mar. 19, 1881.
Union Marine	Liverpool, Eng. .	Mar. 28, 1881.

Of the five Foreign Companies admitted as above, two have made the required deposits with the Treasurer and Receiver-General of Massachusetts, — the Fire Insurance Association of London, $300,000; and the Union Marine, of Liverpool, $100,000, its remaining $200,000 having been previously deposited with the New York Insurance Department.

Among other Companies admitted is the Union, of San Francisco, formerly well known in this and other Eastern States, from which it voluntarily withdrew after the great Chicago fire. Another Company is the Spinners' Mutual, recently organized in Boston under the general law of the State. The People's Fire, of New York, and the Lumbermen's, of Philadelphia, and the Fire Insurance Company of the County of Philadelphia, are new competitors in the Bay State.

The Equitable Marine, of Provincetown, Mass., reported last year as closing up, has made up its capital of $50,000, and decided to continue business, and has arranged to re-insure the marine risks of the Atlantic Fire and Marine, of the same town, which retires.

All the Home Companies retiring re-insured their outstanding risks, — the Alliance, in the Re-assurances Générales ; the Faneuil Hall, in the Liverpool and London and Globe, and subsequently its additional risks in the Underwriters' Association of New York ; the Mechanics', in the Scottish Union ; and the Revere, in the Fire Association of London. All these Home Companies re-insuring are voluntarily closing their business. Of the other retiring Companies, the Scottish Commercial re-insured in the Lancashire, and the Caissé Générale, in the Imperial and Northern.

INCREASE OF INSURANCE CAPITAL, ETC.

A noticeable movement for enlarged capital and other financial resources, in keeping with the growth and demands of the business, has appeared during the past year, and several Companies writing risks in the State have made important additions to their previous amounts. The Boston Marine has increased its paid-up capital from $500,000 to $1,000,000; the Shoe and Leather, of Boston, from $300,000 to $400,000; the Springfield Fire and Marine, from $750,000 to $1,000,000; the Firemen's Fund, of San Francisco, from $300,000 to $750,000; and the Star Fire, of New York, from $300,000 to $500,000. Of others contemplating, or having consummated similar action, of which there are some, no official information has yet been received.

Of the Foreign Companies, the London and Lancashire has made a further increase of its home capital, both subscribed and paid up, the former now amounting to £1,847,500, and the latter to £184,750, though not affecting the deposits and assets held for the security of its American policy-holders at large. The Lancashire, of Manchester, Eng., which re-insured the risks of the Scottish Commercial, received, with other considerations therefor, the latter's American assets, among them its deposit of $300,000 upon which the Company was admitted to Massachusetts, which deposit has been placed to the credit of the former.

FOREIGN COMPANIES AND THEIR STATEMENTS.

In 1865, which year introduces the first quinquennial period embraced in the statistical review which follows, only two European Companies were represented in Massachusetts. In the last year of the same period, 1869, there were five; and there are now twenty-seven, with an immediate prospective increase. A marked feature of their business in this country is their lower premium rate and expense ratio, as compared with the average of American Companies. But this fact is by no means conclusive evidence of their ability to secure the better class of risks; nor does it seem a valid reason why American Companies, certainly the stronger, should not maintain a successful competition.

Since the disastrous experiences of 1871, 1872, and 1873, in which the record of the Foreign Companies then represented on this side of the water was so honorable, their influx has brought, with few exceptions, no greater financial strength or prestige than is offered by American Companies, in many instances even below the latter. With impartial privileges accorded to both, there seems no good reason why the former should be able to drive the latter from the field. It is certainly fair to assume that exemption from unequal burdens will enable both American and Foreign Companies and capital to compete with equal advantages. That the business of the Foreign Companies is ably and economically managed is notably manifest. But, aside from this, it is claimed, and was urged before the Insurance Committee of the present Legislature, that they are comparatively exempt from taxation, and are granted special privileges for which no equivalent is required, all of which is held to be a discrimination against their American rivals.

It has been the custom of this Department to publish in its Reports a summary of the home statements of Foreign Companies, in the same form and detail in which those of all American Companies are made up. Under the legislation of 1878, chapter 130, such publication is neither called for, nor of any particular interest or value. Section two of the act named provides, in effect, that, for the purposes of the insurance laws of this Commonwealth, the aggregate value of the money securities and other admitted assets of such Foreign Companies, legally and absolutely deposited or held in this country for the security of all their policy-holders in the several States, shall constitute the financial basis upon which they may be permitted to do business in conformity with said laws. In accordance with this legislation the annual statements of their American Branches are given in their usual detail, as heretofore. Following these will be found aggregated tabulations of their home statements, showing capital, assets, liabilities, surplus, income, and expenditures.

UNDERWRITING IN 1880.

This simple caption opens a broad subject for consideration. In subsequent exhibits will be found some of the more salient and suggestive points which its analyses present. Of their importance and value experienced underwriters will judge.

With fire losses alone, — averaging in the whole country nearly or quite one hundred millions annually, of which more than forty per cent is claimed by insurers as the result of incendiarism, and a large percentage of the remainder as caused by the direct or indirect carelessness of property owners, — to say nothing of the failure of Companies themselves to exercise proper care and supervision over their own risks, it becomes at once apparent that the interests involved are of great magnitude and importance.

The business of the year is so fully presented in the statements which follow, that only a passing summary is necessary here.

As compared with the previous year, the Companies represented by annual statements in this Report show admitted assets aggregating $162,779,014, with liabilities amounting to $54,008,128, leaving a net surplus of $108,770,886, each item a small excess over 1879.

Their risks written amount to $8,704,818,307, nearly a thousand and fifty millions over 1879; premium receipts, $67,897,557, an increase of more than seven millions over 1879, and more than six millions over 1878; losses paid, $38,961,349, an excess of only $530,330 over 1879, in which year there was an increase of nearly six millions over 1878; working expenses, $21,253,028, an increase of $1,586,099 over the previous year. The premium receipts for 1880 show a surplus of $7,683,180 over expenses and losses paid, against a surplus of only $2,458,875 on the same account in 1879.

The Massachusetts business aggregates, in risks written, $870,137,027; premium receipts, $8,825,073; and losses paid, $5,245,784. The risks written show nearly one hundred and thirty millions, and premium receipts nearly one million, in excess of the previous year.

FIRE AND MARINE UNDERWRITING, ITS VOLUME AND COST. — A COMPARATIVE EXHIBIT.

The moral and physical hazards of underwriting present a wide and important field for investigation. But, while the attention of intelligent and experienced underwriters is being constantly occupied in its exploration, another aspect of its profit and loss account calls for special scrutiny and consideration.

The unusual number of Companies retired and contemplating retirement from the insurance world suggests, therefore, a pertinent subject for inquiry. Various reasons are assigned for the wholesale re-insurance of outstanding risks, the closing of Company doors, and the withdrawal of business from some fields to others, which have become so frequent. Chief among the reasons named are the large and increasing number of competitors, their reckless rivalry and its inevitable demoralization and inadequacy of premium rates, and the consequent and continued increase of working expenditure, the latter largely augmented in numerous cases by agency and brokerage commissions incident to the greedy struggle for business. When it is considered that underwriting has, in later years, become more and more subject to these exceptional conditions and rivalries, the important and vital issues involved will be intelligently appreciated.

As intimately bearing upon this subject, and having interest and importance in its connection, we have taken pains to collate the fire and marine experiences of Companies reporting to this Department, selecting for the purpose, and as fairest for illustration, three periods removed from the exceptional and disastrous results in Chicago and Boston in 1871, 1872, and 1873. The first includes the five years ending with 1869; the second, the five years ending with 1878; and the last, the two years of 1879 and 1880. The results evolved are suggestive as indicating the status into which, under present policy and practice, the business seems to be gradually drifting.

The experiences referred to are presented as briefly as possible in the following compilations: —

Although statistics are regarded as dry and uninviting, and the limit originally intended for these collections has been necessarily exceeded, the hope is ventured that they may prove serviceable in their teaching and application. But, without further elaboration here, it may suffice to say that the interests involved are so enormous and far-reaching in their business relations, that almost any measure of practical benefit derived from their presentation may well compensate for time and labor expended. Aside from the general information which they impart, their lessons of actual experience may not be too carefully studied. How far their revelations may effectually prompt better methods and wiser administration will be a problem for underwriters to solve.

EXPENSES TO PREMIUM RECEIPTS.

In preceding exhibits expense ratios have been given in some detail; but, as they constitute a factor of vital importance in their relations to the business under review, a comprehensive summary of their remarkable range and average, especially in their latest development, will be of interest here.

An examination of annual statements, as rendered from year to year, discloses wide differences in ratios of working expenditure. These have existed in every period, and under all conditions affecting the business of underwriting. For illustration we cite the following:—

COMPANIES.	1879.		1880.
	Ratio of Expenses to Premium Receipts.	Average.	Ratio of Expenses to Premium Receipts.	Average.

An aggregation of the business of all the Companies reporting during the two quinquennial periods, introduced on preceding pages, shows equally interesting results. From 1865 to 1869, inclusive, their ratios of working expenditure to premium receipts ranged from 4.88 to 131.03, with a general average of 27.63; from 1874 to 1878, inclusive, the range was from 4.48 to 111.44, with an average of 29.53; while, for the years 1879-80, the range, as above stated, was from .96 to 179.95, averaging for the two years 31.86.

Although the extreme average increase of expense ratios among all the Companies combined, between 1865 and 1880, was a fraction less than five per cent, yet there were very many instances in which, owing to the pressure of competition or other kindred causes, as may be reasonably inferred, the increase by individual Companies ranged from ten to more than sixty per cent.

Among Massachusetts Companies, the Mutual Fire, as a whole, maintained exceptional uniformity, their average varying less than two per cent, decreasing, from 21.95 in the first period, to 20.11 in the last, and to 19.80 for the year 1880 alone. The Mutual Marine and Fire-Marine nearly doubled theirs, increasing their average, from 10.61 in the first, to 19.93 in the last, and falling to 19.47 for 1880 alone. The Joint-Stock Companies raised theirs, from 20.52 in the first, to 31.05 in the last, and dropping to 28.67 for 1880.

The average ratio of all Companies from other States shows an increase, during the fifteen years, from 29.38 to 32.77, reduced to 32.31 in 1880; and the American Branches of the Foreign Companies, an increase from 27.07 to 31.58, dropping to 31.28 in 1880.

In the review of Massachusetts business for 1880 alone, included in statements following, will be found other comparisons of similar import and interest. Of the Home Companies, the Mutual Fire show an average expense ratio of only 19.27; the Mutual Fire and Fire-Marine, 19.54; the Joint-Stock, 28.45; those from other States, 32.30; and those from other countries, 31.28. It will be understood that these ratios are factors in those before given as the averages for 1879-80 combined, and therefore not in conflict therewith.

MASSACHUSETTS BUSINESS.

The strictly Massachusetts business transacted by Companies authorized to write fire and marine risks within the State presents some features of important local interest not heretofore pointed out. Its volume and comparative ratios are quite suggestive, and, if intelligently analyzed, may reveal instructive results.

In the business of 1880, summarized in detail in Table XII., the Massachusetts Companies compare favorably with their competitors, their local risks written showing an increase of ten per cent over the previous year; while their average premium rate was reduced only five one-hundredths of one per cent, and their losses increased only two per cent, indicating a material gain in the general result. The Massachusetts business written by Companies from other States and countries was increased nearly seventeen per cent; while their average premium rate was reduced seven per cent, and their losses increased sixteen per cent, — a net result by no means without its lesson.

An aggregation of the Massachusetts business for 1879–80 exhibits other items of special interest. It appears, that, of all local risks written during these two years, the Home Mutual Fire Companies took nearly fourteen per cent; the Home Mutual Marine and Fire-Marine, a fraction over five per cent; the Home Joint-Stock, a fraction over twenty-one and a half per cent; Companies from other States, forty-three and one-third per cent; and the American Branches of the Foreign Companies, a little over sixteen per cent.

In keeping with the illustrative tabulations already introduced, we append the following summarized statement of Massachusetts business for the last two years, with comparative ratios:—

In the case of Companies writing both fire and marine risks, we have used for the computation of expense ratios a formula based upon returns specially requested, no distinction being ordinarily made in annual statements between expenses appertaining to the two branches of business, nor between Massachusetts business in distinction from that done in other States.

A comparison of these with the ratios representing periods previously cited will show some important differences. But, among other matters of interest, it will be seen that all the Companies report a higher premium rate on their Massachusetts business than upon their aggregate volume. Of the Massachusetts Companies, the Mutual Fire, two-thirds of whose business is confined to the State, have suffered during the last two years a much heavier ratio of losses on their home risks than upon their aggregate; while the Mutual Marine and Fire-Marine and Joint-Stock report a smaller ratio on home business. The Companies of other States and countries show a heavier ratio of losses on Massachusetts risks, which, with their larger expense ratio and smaller premium rate, reduces their surplus of premium receipts on Massachusetts business to a meagre percentage.

The foregoing results are introduced, as are those on preceding pages, with the belief that every legislator, as well as insurance expert, will find in them instructive suggestion. The large volume of business done in this Commonwealth, the many millions of dollars annually paid for the protection of Massachusetts property, the many millions received in reimbursement for losses incurred, with their accompanying financial ratios, constitute important factors in public polity and welfare.

THE MASSACHUSETTS FIRE RECORD FOR 1880.

The yearly record of fires, even in a single State, is full of important interest, and sometimes interspersed with strange mysteries and surprising incidents. Such has been the last year's record of fires in Massachusetts.

Ninety towns report no fires within their precincts. In other municipalities there were 1,722, a decrease of 130 from the record of 1879. The estimated losses aggregate $1,454,221, of which the insurance reimbursement amounted to $3,159,515, or nearly seventy-one per cent. Of the whole number of losses, 596 were total, and 1,126 were partial.

Of the whole number of fires during the year, 677 (nearly forty per cent) are reported as incendiary and unknown; exposure to other burning buildings or premises, 247, or more than one-seventh; defective chimneys, heating-apparatus, and boilers, 252, also more than one-seventh; careless use and exposure of matches, 106, of which 83 were caused by children at play, and 12 by rats; use of kerosene and volatile oils, 108; spontaneous combustion, 45; smoking, 34; ashes in wooden vessels, 28; fireworks, 12; sparks from chimneys, stoves, and locomotives, 92.

Among other singular incidents mentioned in the returns was one at Greenfield, Dec. 30, in which the concentration of the sun's rays upon a looking-glass set fire to a window-curtain, causing a loss of forty dollars. It is noted, also, that one of the dangerous manufactures is that of lamp-black, an establishment for that purpose at Lynn being almost sure to burn every year. Cases of spontaneous combustion are reported as of frequent occurrence in soft coal, when deposited or piled more than five or six feet high. Among the fires originating from chimneys, several were caused by failure to place doors at the bottom, for the removal of soot or other refuse material accumulating within.

It is a practical suggestion from the Chief of the Somerville Fire Department, that Chief Engineers of all such Departments should be appointed Fire Marshals with authority to investigate causes of all fires occurring in their precincts. With all such or similar measures, and the enactment of improved and equitable building laws efficiently enforced throughout the whole Commonwealth, especially in all cities and towns in which lives and property are exposed, either in packed or badly arranged structures or in thickly populated localities, very much may be accomplished in addition to what legislation has already secured.

With the fire statistics in course of collection by this Department, as authorized by Chap. 104 of the Acts of 1878, much instructive information is being accumulated. The returns for the first five years will soon be in hand, from which it is believed important and valuable experiences may be gathered.

FIRE-INSURANCE RESERVES.

The computation of an equitable fire-insurance reserve is attended with many difficulties. The present measure of liability established by law for unearned premiums is clearly unjust and fallacious in its practical application, being in numerous cases unnecessarily large, and in others manifestly too small, and therefore by no means a reliable standard. Of the many conditions which of necessity enter into this question, it is needless to speak here, especially as the whole subject is being carefully considered by intelligent experts. For this reason mainly, the attention of the Legislature was not directed to existing statutes regulating such liability. At the Insurance Conference held in Chicago in September last, the subject was quite fully discussed pending the consideration of a valuable paper presented by William D. Whiting, Esq., of New York, and was finally referred to a special committee for investigation and report. It is possible that conclusions may be reached which will materially aid in the solution of this difficult problem.

INSURANCE LEGISLATION. — “MASSACHUSETTS STANDARD POLICY,” ETC.

During the preparation and printing of the present Report, several insurance matters have engaged the attention of the Legislature. While these have been fewer than usual, only three or four which have passed to enactment have very general interest.

In the department of fire underwriting, two of the latter are specially important. One of these is the removal of the restriction to three-fourths of the property-value in risks written by Mutual Companies; the other, and the one of most importance, is the substitution of an improved “standard policy” for the unsatisfactory form enacted in 1880. This subject has received patient and mature consideration by the Joint Committee on Insurance, aided by suggestions from experienced experts representing a large number of Companies chartered at home and abroad. The policy in its new draught goes into effect from and after Oct. 1, 1881.

As a step in the direction of simplicity and uniformity, as well as in its recognition and enforcement of more equitable terms, it is a substantial success. Carrying also permissive authority for the interpolation of other conditions required by law, charter, or deed of settlement, it meets an important necessity not provided for by the imperfect legislation of 1880. As a whole, the new form of policy is perhaps as nearly acceptable to all Companies transacting business in the State, as any whose enactment could be secured.

For the information and use of Companies authorized in Massachusetts, the entire act is hereto appended.

AN ACT concerning Mutual Fire-Insurance Companies, and establishing a Standard Form for Fire-Insurance Policies.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

SECTION 1. No fire insurance company or association shall, after the first day of October next, issue fire-insurance policies on property in this Commonwealth other than those of the standard form herein set forth, except as follows, to wit:—

First. A company or association may print on or in its policies its name, location, and date of incorporation, the amount of its paid-up capital stock, the names of its officers and agents, the number and date of the policy, and, if it be issued through an agent, the words, “This policy shall not be valid until countersigned by the duly authorized agent of the company at .”

Second. A company or association may print or use in its policies printed forms of description and specification of the property insured.

Third. A company or association insuring against damage by lightning, may print, in the clause enumerating the perils insured against, the additional words, “Also any damage by lightning, whether fire ensues or not,” and in the clause providing for an apportionment of loss in case of other insurance, the words, “whether by fire, lightning, or both.”

Fourth. A company or association, incorporated or formed in this Commonwealth, may print in its policies any provisions which it is authorized or required by law to insert therein; and any company or association not incorporated or formed in this Commonwealth may, with the approval of the insurance commissioner, so print any provision required by its charter or deed of settlement, or the laws of its own state or country, not contrary to the laws of this Commonwealth: provided, however, that the insurance commissioner shall require any provision which, in his opinion, modifies the contract of insurance in such way as to affect the question of loss to be appended to the policy by a slip or rider, as hereinafter provided.

Fifth. The blanks in said standard form may be filled in print or writing.

Sixth. A company or association may print upon policies issued in compliance with the preceding provisions of this section the words, “Massachusetts Standard Policy.”

Seventh. A company or association may write upon the margin or across the face of a policy, or write or print upon separate slips or riders, to be attached thereto, provisions adding to or modifying those contained in the standard form; but when printed to be in type not smaller than long primer, and all such slips, riders and provisions must be signed by the agent, or the company so using them.

The said standard form of policy shall be plainly printed, and no portion thereof shall be in smaller type than long primer, and shall be as follows, to wit:—

Assured to protect property in case of exposure to fire.

If the insured property shall be exposed to loss or damage by fire, the insured shall make all reasonable exertions to save and protect the same.

In case of any loss or damage under this policy, a STATEMENT in writing, signed and sworn to by the insured, shall be forthwith rendered to the company, setting forth the value of the property insured, the interest of the insured therein, all other insurance thereon, in detail, the purposes for which and the persons by whom the building insured, or containing the property insured, was used, and the time at which and manner in which the fire originated, so far as known to the insured. The company may also examine the books of account and vouchers of the insured, and make extracts from the same.

Statement by insured in case of loss.

In case of any loss or damage, the company, within sixty days after the insured shall have submitted a statement, as provided in the preceding clause, shall either pay the amount for which it shall be liable or replace the property with other of the same kind and goodness,—or it may, within fifteen days after such statement is submitted, notify the insured of its intention to rebuild or repair the premises, or any portion thereof separately insured by this policy, and shall thereupon enter upon said premises and proceed to rebuild or repair the same with reasonable expedition. It is moreover understood that there can be no abandonment of the property insured to the company, and that the company shall not in any case be liable for more than the sum insured, with interest thereon from the time when the loss shall become payable, as above provided.

Payment of loss to be made within sixty days after proof, unless company elects to replace or repair.

shall be liable or replace the property with other of the same kind and goodness,—or it may, within fifteen days after such statement is submitted, notify the insured of its intention to rebuild or repair the premises, or any portion thereof separately insured by this policy, and shall thereupon enter upon said premises and proceed to rebuild or repair the same with reasonable expedition.

If there shall be any OTHER INSURANCE on the property insured, whether prior or subsequent, the insured shall recover on this policy no greater proportion of the loss sustained than the sum hereby insured bears to the whole amount insured thereon. And whenever the company shall pay any loss, the insured shall assign to it, to the extent of the amount so paid, all rights to recover satisfaction for the loss or damage from any person, town, or other corporation, excepting other insurers; or the insured, if requested, shall prosecute therefor at the charge and for the account of the company.

Insured to assign to company claims against third parties.

If this policy shall be made payable to a mortgagee of the insured real estate, no act or default of any person other than such mortgagee or his agents, or those claiming under him, shall affect such mortgagee's right to recover in case of loss on such real estate: provided, that the mortgagee shall, on demand, pay according to the established scale of rates for any increase of risks not paid for by the insured; and whenever this company shall be liable to a mortgagee for any sum for loss under this policy, for which no liability exists as to the mortgagor, or owner, and this company shall elect by itself, or with others, to pay the mortgagee the full amount secured by such mortgage, then the mortgagee shall assign and transfer to the companies interested, upon such payment, the said mortgage, together with the note and debt thereby secured.

Rights of parties in case the policy is made payable to a mortgagee.

This policy may be CANCELLED at any time at the request of the insured, who shall thereupon be entitled to a return of the portion of the above premium remaining, after deducting the customary monthly short rates for the time this policy shall have been in force. The company also reserves the right, after giving written notice to the insured, and to any mortgagee to whom this policy is made payable, and tendering to the insured a ratable proportion of the premium, to cancel this policy as to all risks subsequent to the expiration of ten days from such notice, and no mortgagee shall then have the right to recover as to such risks.

Cancellation of Policy.

In case any difference of opinion shall arise as to the amount of loss under this policy, it is mutually agreed that the said loss shall be referred to three disinterested men, the company and the insured each choosing one out of three persons to be named by the other, and the third being selected by the two so chosen, provided that neither party shall be required to choose or accept any person who has served as a referee in any like case within four months; and the decision of a majority of said referees in writing shall be final and binding on the parties.

Differences to be submitted to referees.

No suit or action against this company for the recovery of any claim by virtue of this policy shall be sustained in any court of law or equity in this Commonwealth unless commenced within two years from the time the loss occurred.

In witness whereof the said _____ company has caused this policy to be signed by its President, and attested by its Secretary [or by such proper officers as may be designated], at their office in _____ date

SECT. 2. Any insurance company, association, or agent who shall wilfully or knowingly violate any of the provisions of this act by making, issuing, or delivering any policy of fire insurance in this Commonwealth except as herein provided, shall be punished by fine of not less than twenty nor more than fifty dollars for the first offence, and of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars for each subsequent offence, upon complaint made by the insurance commissioner, or by any citizen of the Commonwealth, to any court having jurisdiction of the offence; but any policy of insurance so made, issued, or delivered, shall nevertheless be binding upon such company or association.

SECT. 3. Chapter three hundred and thirty-one of the acts of the year eighteen hundred and seventy-three, chapter one hundred and seventy-five of the acts of the year eighteen hundred and eighty, and so much of section fifty-two of chapter fifty-eight of the General Statutes as limits the amount of a policy, issued on the mutual plan, to three-fourths of the value of the property insured, are hereby repealed.

SECT. 4. This act shall take effect upon its passage.
[Approved March 31, 1881.]

INSURANCE RECEIVERSHIPS.

TAX COMMISSIONER, AND BY HIM COMPILED.

EVERY AGENT of any insurance company not incorporated in this Commonwealth is required by law to procure from the Insurance Commissioner a CERTIFICATE OF AUTHORITY for each company for which he proposes to act. The Certificate specifies the name of the Agent, and also the name of the company for which he is authorized to act. It expires, and must be renewed, on the first day of April in each year.

To guard against the impositions of fraudulent companies and dishonest agents, the Commissioner deems it his duty to advise that parties solicited to insure in any company not chartered in this state should decline to deal with any person not holding the Commissioner's Certificate of Authority, or to insure in any company not named in the Certificate.

INSURANCE LAWS OF 1880.

[CHAP. 25.]

AN ACT to provide that the Receivers of Insolvent Insurance Companies shall deposit certain moneys with the Treasurer of the Commonwealth.

Be it enacted, &c., as follows:

Receivers of insolvent insurance companies having unclaimed moneys or dividends belonging to the estate of any such company remaining in their hands for one year after final settlement ordered by the court, shall deposit the amount so remaining uncalled for with the treasurer of the Commonwealth, with a schedule of the names and residences, so far as known, of the parties entitled thereto; and said treasurer shall receive and hold the same in trust for such parties and their representatives; and said treasurer shall pay over the same to the parties entitled thereto, upon proper demand made therefor, upon being furnished with evidence satisfactory to him of the identity of the claimant and the justice of the claim. [Approved February 19, 1880.]

[CHAP. 35.]

AN ACT defining the words "premium received" in chapter one hundred and eight of the Acts of the year eighteen hundred and seventy-four.

Be it enacted, &c., as follows:

Wherever the words "premium received" occur in chapter one hundred and eight of the acts of the year eighteen hundred and seventy-four, they shall be held to mean the amount of premium written in the policy. [Approved February 26, 1880.]

[CHAP. 175.]*

AN ACT in addition to an Act to establish a standard form for Insurance Policies.

Be it enacted, &c., as follows:

SECT. 1. No fire insurance company authorized to issue policies in this Commonwealth shall issue any policy containing any condition or conditions that the company shall not be liable beyond the whole or any fractional portion of the actual value of the property insured, at the time of the loss or damage, unless said condition or conditions are separately printed in long primer type, Roman or old style face, at the head of the policy, and also in the same type in the body of the policy; and no such company, excepting mutual companies, except as provided in section two of this act, shall issue any policy in which the printed parts, exclusive of the description of the property insured, vary from the Massachusetts standard policy, set forth in the acts of the year eighteen hundred and seventy-three, chapter three hundred and thirty-one, excepting that every such company may issue policies in which any of the provisions of the said policy are printed and erased; and excepting also, that every such company may insert any provisions varying from the provisions of the said standard policy, provided such provisions are printed upon separate slips, or riders, in type of size not smaller than long primer, and are accepted by the insured, and that every such slip or rider is signed by him as well as by an agent or officer of such company duly authorized thereto.

* Now repealed by chap. 166 of the Acts of 1881. For new form, see text of this report.

SECT. 2. The provisions of the preceding section shall not prevent any company authorized to insure against damage by lightning from adding in the clause in said standard policy enumerating the perils insured against, the words "also any damage by lightning whether fire ensues or not," and also from adding in the clause of said policy providing for an apportionment of loss in case of other insurance, the words "whether by fire, lightning or both."

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect upon the first day of January in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-one. [Approved April 7, 1880.]

[CHAP. 227.]

AN ACT to impose an Excise Tax upon Life Insurance Companies.

Be it enacted, &c., as follows:

SECT. 1. Every corporation and association engaged within this Commonwealth, by its officers or by agents as defined by chapter one hundred and fourteen of the acts of the year eighteen hundred and sixty-four, in the business of life insurance, whether incorporated by authority of this Commonwealth or otherwise, shall annually pay an excise tax of an amount to be determined by assessment of the same upon a valuation equal to the aggregate net value of all policies in force on the thirty-first day of December, then next preceding, issued or assumed by such corporation or association, and held by residents of the Commonwealth at the rate of one-half of one per centum per annum.

SECT. 2. Every such corporation chartered by this Commonwealth shall, annually, on or before the tenth day of May, make a return to the tax commissioner, signed and sworn to by its president and secretary, giving the number, date and class of the policies so held, the age of the assured life, and the aggregate net value of each group requiring a separate computation to determine their net value and the combined aggregate. In case of companies or associations chartered or organized by other authority than this Commonwealth, like returns shall be made by the general agent of the company or association appointed under the provisions of chapter sixty-eight of the General Statutes; but a return made and sworn to by the president and secretary of the company may be accepted by the tax commissioner, and shall be binding upon the company. The tax commissioner shall, upon such return and such other evidence as he may obtain, assess and determine the amount to be paid by such corporation under the requirements of the first section of this act; and the provisions of the eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth and seventeenth sections of chapter two hundred and eighty-three of the acts of the year eighteen hundred and sixty-five, shall apply to the determination of the amount, notification, and time of payment of assessments under this act, except that notification shall be made to the secretary or general agent of the company or association instead of the treasurer.

SECT. 3. For the purpose of this act all persons or corporations shall be deemed residents of this Commonwealth who, under the provisions of chapter eleven of the General Statutes, are made liable to taxation on account of personal property other than that mentioned in the first, second and third divisions of section twelve of said chapter, owned or held by or for them in trust, pledged, or otherwise.

SECT. 4. Every corporation or association neglecting to make return as required by this act shall forfeit fifty dollars for each day of such neglect; and any corporation that wilfully makes false statements in any such return shall be liable to pay a fine of not less than five hundred nor more than five thousand dollars. All sums forfeited, and all taxes unpaid when due, by a corporation under this act, or any act amending this act, may be collected by information in equity brought in the supreme judicial court in the name of the attorney general, at the relation of the treasurer and receiver general; and upon such information the court may issue an injunction restraining the further prosecution of the business, or of any part thereof, of the corporation named therein, until said sums forfeited as aforesaid, or said taxes due and unpaid as aforesaid are paid, together with interest and the costs of the information, and until the returns required by this act, and any act amending this act are made.

SECT. 5. This act shall take effect upon its passage. [Approved April 22, 1880.]

[CHAP. 232.]

AN ACT limiting the Forfeiture of Policies in Life Insurance Companies.

Be it enacted, &c., as follows :

SECT. 1. No policy of life or endowment assurance issued by any company incorporated or organized under the laws of this Commonwealth shall become forfeited or void for non-payment of premium after two full annual premiums shall have been paid thereon, in cash or note, or both ; but upon default in any subsequent premium payment such policy shall become subject to the conditions hereinafter expressed.

SECT. 2. In case of default in the payment of a third or of any subsequent annual premium on any policy issued as aforesaid, then such policy, without further negotiation or stipulation, shall be binding upon the company for an amount of paid-up insurance which the then net value of the policy, less any indebtedness of the assured to the company and a surrender charge as herein-after provided, will purchase as a net single premium for life or endowment assurance, maturing or terminating at the same time and in the same manner as provided in the original policy contract ; that is to say, no condition of the policy contract, other than for the payment of premiums, shall be affected by the provisions of this act ; nor shall any change be made in the terms of said contract on account of default in premium payment, after two full annual premiums have been paid as provided in section one of this act, except as herein set forth. The net value of the policy including all dividend additions declared thereon at the date of said default, shall be ascertained according to the combined experience or actuaries' rate of mortality, with interest at four per cent. per annum ; and from such value shall be deducted any indebtedness of the insured to the company, or notes held by the company against the insured, and a surrender charge to be determined as hereinafter provided.

SECT. 3. Said surrender charge shall be determined as follows : Assuming the rate of mortality and interest aforesaid, the present value of all the normal, future yearly costs of insurance, which by its terms said policy is exposed to pay in case of its continuance, shall be calculated, and eight per cent. of this sum shall be the legal surrender charge.

SECT. 4. Whenever after the payment of two annual premiums as aforesaid the insurable interest in the life of the insured has terminated, the net value of the policy, subject to the conditions named in section two of this act, shall be a surrender value payable in cash : provided, also, that upon the termination of such insurable interest the holder of any policy upon which by its terms no further premiums are payable, may upon any anniversary thereof claim and recover in cash from the company a surrender value computed as aforesaid ; and provided, further, that upon policies of prudential or industrial insurance, on which the premiums are five cents per week and upwards, but not exceeding fifty cents, the said surrender value shall in all cases be payable in cash.

SECT. 5. The insurable interest named in section four of this act shall be construed to have terminated when the insured has no minor or dependent child ; and his wife, if he has one, and any living beneficiary or beneficiaries named in the policy shall join in the application for surrender thereof.

SECT. 6. The provisions of chapter one hundred and eighty-six of the acts of eighteen hundred and sixty-one shall not apply to any policy issued subsequent to the thirty-first day of December, eighteen hundred and eighty.

SECT. 7. This act shall take effect on the first day of January, eighteen hundred and eighty-one. [Approved April 23, 1880.]
